Great Anxiety Felt.

No word has been received at the offices of the Pacific Coast Steamship company regarding the fate of the Puebla. The officers of the company are confident that either the Whittier or the Queen will pick her up and tow her safely into port. Still, great anxiety is felt for the disabled ship.

The City of Puebla, which belongs to the Pacific Coast Steamship com-pany, is on Iron screw steamer built in 1881 by Cramp & Sons. She is $201/2 feet long, 381% feet beam and 26 feet 3 inches deep. Her registered tonnage is 2,624, the net tonninge being 1,713. Her Jepsen, an expericific coast waters. Hed from Seattle with further north but connects at that port with vessels from Alaska.

Council.

Presentations to retiring officers were the features of the last session of the old council, which was called to order at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon.

After the routine business of the session had been dispatched, Councilman A. J. Davis secured the floor and remarked that the council had met in secret a few days before to consider the advisability of convicting City Recorder J. S. Critchlow of vagrancy and riding him out of town on a rail.

"Since that time, however, we have learned that he has secured a position with The Herald, and we have decided to forego the pleasure of riding him out of town," continued Mr. Davis. "We decided, on the contrary, to buy him a Presentations to retiring officers were decided, on the contrary, to buy him a small instrument that would assist him in drawing his check, and we all are in drawing his check, and we all are sorry that he could not have been retained here."

With this Mr. Davis handed Mr. Critchlow a beautiful fountain pen, with a pearl case and gold mountings. Mr. Critchlow "allowed" that he had always been able to draw his check with frequency and unction, and had been the first to appear on pay day most of the time.

"I think I have devoted to that feature of the position all the time it demanded," he continued, "and I can assure you that I have found it the most delightful labor connected with the duties of the city recorder's office."

He closed with an expression of appreciation.

New York, Jan. 2.-Twelve hundred union printers, the employes of fortyfour book and pob printing concerns in New York City, went on strike today and began the struggle for the eighthour day which had been declared to go into effect today. Members of the local typothetae, against whom the strike was declared, asserted tonight that hundreds of non-union printers from various parts of the country are hurrying to New York to take the places of the strikers and to secure the high the strikers and to secure the high wages paid in this city. Representatives of the Typographical union say that the eight-hour-day principle has already been won in New York, and that the percentage of men compelled to strike is very small.

Last spring the city voted a bond issue for the purpose of purchasing the ground occupied by these four buildings with the intention of opening up a street, and arrangements for the purchase of the property had been effected to take place on the 15th of February.

According to an official statement is sued tonight, there are eighty-eight firms associated in the local typothetae. Of these, twenty-five have consented to the eight-hour day, forty-four firms have decided to adhere to the ninehibits betting on horse races. Several hour day rule and seven firms alread; were operating on the open shop principle. Twelve members of the typothetae have yet reached no decision union men the employing printers have established an employment bureau in this city, which will be run in connec-tion with similar offices in other cities. It is said no discrimination will be made against union men at these employment stations. George H. Ellis of Boston, president of the United Typothetae of America, came to New York today. In an interview Mr. Ellis said:

much pleased with the present situation of the strike in all parts of the country. We expected a great deal of trouble, but thus far we have very little." Modern Plumbing

Two Buildings Burned to the Ground and Two Wrecked to Prevent Spread of Flames. (Special to The Herald.)

Blackfoot, Ida., Jan. 2.-About midnight last night a fire broke out in the candy store of McAtee & Co., on Pacific street. The fire had assumed considerable headway before its discovery and rapidly spread to the adjoining building occupied by the meat market of Criswell & Hill. Volunteer firemen responded to the olunteer firemen alarm and by splendid work confined the fire to the two buildings mentioned. Bo of these were frame structures and were burned to the ground. To the north of the burned buildings were two more frame buildings which were wrecked to prevent the spread of the fire. These buildings were occupied by J. H. Mc-Carthy, liquor dealers, and by Drebin & Co., gents' furnishings, both of whose stocks suffered considerable damage. The total loss is about $6,000 and is fully covered by insurance.

Last spring the city voted a bond issue
